Oregon Travel Information Council

has always been an advocate of economic development through the provision of signs on state right-of-way for hospitality businesses and attractions. They further that status through their Heritage Division by bringing a traveler to a local community as they learn Oregon's story through Historic Markers and Heritage Trees. They are embarking on a brand new direction for economic development. The Transportation Act of 2009 gives TIC management and improvement authority over seven rest areas. One of those rest areas is directly north of Marion County. It is vision that they will create jobs through use of private landscape, maintenance, electrical and plumbing services to provide excellent management of the infrastructure. They also plan to use the expertise of the local governments and SEDCOR in establishing a vision for the rest area use that will provide optimal service to the communities within the county. To do that, they need to hear from those who live here. They believe that as they learn more about the SEDCOR resources, they will find additional partnerships. It's a win-win situation. They're glad to be aboard! Contact Cheryl Gribskov at 503-378-4508 or visit www.oregontic.com.
